The Privacy Policy below applies solely to the collection and processing of information through Extremity Games' website by Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network. Processing includes the collection, use, storage and disclosure of information by Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network.

We offer links to other websites. Please note that Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network is not responsible for the privacy practices of such sites and their standards may differ from ours. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site to read the privacy statements of each and every website that collects personally identifiable information.

Information collection

Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network is the sole owner of the information collected through the Extremity Games' website. We do not sell, share, or rent this information to others. Use of information is according to the procedures and standards listed in this document. Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network never knowingly asks a child under 13 to divulge personal information.

Information collected at our site

The information we collect through the Extremity Games' website can be categorized as follows:

- Passive traffic information is any non-personal information that helps us track the success and content of our site. Data is collected on our server and includes the number of visits and visitors, page views and referring sites (such as search engines etc). We use IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track user movement and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use. None of the traffic information is ever connected to specific individuals or computers and the sole purpose of the passive traffic information is to help us measure and maintain the success of our site.
- Voluntarily supplied information is information that users might give us while using the services provided by Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network online; such as signing up for our mailing list, submitting a registration form or emailing with questions.
 - Personally identifiable information is any information that might help someone identify a specific person (e.g. name, home address, telephone number, etc). Users leave personally identifiable information with us to register for our athletic competition or to sign up for our mailing list. Personally identifiable information is only collected voluntarily on the Extremity Games' website.
 - Users on mailing lists may opt out at any time, upon which their record is deleted.

Access to Information

Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network maintains the accuracy of its information only by users volunteering updated information. Users may access their own personal information upon request and contact Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network about inaccuracies they may find by sending an e-mail to info@athleteswithdisabilities.com. Users may delete their information from the Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network database by unsubscribing from our mailing lists or by request to info@athleteswithdisabilities.com.

Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network may release user information when we believe, in good faith, that such release is reasonably necessary to (i) comply with law, (ii) enforce or apply the terms of any of our user agreements or (iii) protect the rights, property or safety of Extremity Games, our users, or others.

Contact us

Please contact us if you have any questions, comments, or concerns about this Privacy Policy or the treatment of information on this site. Information on how to contact Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network is found on our website.

Your consent

By using our website, you consent to the collection and use of this information by Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network. We reserve the right to change our Privacy Policy at any time and without notice. If we decide to change our Privacy Policy, we will post those changes on the website so that you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.

Use of the Extremity Games' website constitutes your acceptance of these terms and conditions which take effect at the time you first access the site. Those who do not accept these terms and conditions must not use the Extremity Games' website.

This Privacy Policy does not grant any license or right to use any of the intellectual property of Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network except where explicitly stated on the Extremity Games' website. All intellectual property rights, including any trademarks or copyright on the content of this site, are owned by Extremity Events Network/Athletes with Disabilities Network, except where otherwise stated.
